In 2006, Djibouti pledged to ratify OP-CRC-SC. In 2008, the Committee on the Rights of the Child (CRC) encouraged Djibouti to ratify both Optional Protocols (Para 1, Compilation)

HIV/AIDS

Les lois en République de Djibouti sont conçues comme étant des instruments qui doivent permettre la défense des libertés fondamentales et c'est dans ce cadre : c) Que des lois protégeant les groupes vulnérables ont été votés notamment une protégeant les personnes vivant avec le virus du VIH/SIDA (Para 110, NR). CRC welcomed the adoption of the Law on the protection of persons living with HIV/Aids, in 2007 (Para 3, Compilation). CRC welcomed the passing of a law in 2006 implementing measures against discrimination and stigmatization of persons living with HIV/AIDS and their families (Para 13, Compilation)

*Dans un souci de promotion et de protection des droits de l'homme ; certaines mesures ont été prises pour diffuser, respecter et faire respecter les droits de l'homme sur toute l'étendue de son territoire à travers des actions aussi diverses telle que la mise en place des campagnes de sensibilisation et préventions contre les risques liés au VIH (Para 111, NR). CRC welcomed Djibouti's efforts to combat HIV/AIDS, including through, inter alia, the creation of a national programme to fight pandemics (2003-2007); the setting up of a new institutional and organizational framework to address the issue; and the setting up of a Solidarity Fund in 2004 to assist AIDS orphans. Nevertheless, the Committee was concerned that the prevalence of HIV/AIDS remains high and, without policy and other interventions could rise even higher (Para 37, Compilation)*

The 2003-2007 UNDAF listed four domains of cooperation including promotion of sustainable health and fight against the expansion of HIV/AIDS and other communicable diseases (Para 49, Compilation)

Trafficking

CRC welcomed the adoption of the Law against trafficking in human beings in 2007 (Para 3, Compilation)
